Changes Announced by Air Minister Power

Canada to Concentrate on Training Bomber Crews

Change Made

Returned Men Will Get Full Fares to Homes

OTTAWA, Dec. 4—(CP)—Air Minister Power announced today on behalf of the three defence services that fares of servicemen returned from overseas and going home after discharge leave will be paid in full.

Up to now the men were required to pay their own fares, and the reduced service rate—from their districts headquarters to their homes.

(A) Edmonton this week, Lt.-Col. E. Beveridge, who served overseas more than three years and was wounded in action, arrived home on his arrival of treatment of wounded soldiers from Calgary to their homes.

"I am not talking on behalf of myself or the others with me, but those who will follow an home from overseas will be home soon. They are wondering why they must pay their own fares from Calgary home after being invalided back from service."

(Calgary is headquarters of Military District No. 13.)

CLOTHING ALLOWANCE WILL BE INCREASED

OTTAWA, Dec. 4—(CP)—The clothing allowance on discharge for all defence services has been increased to $65, irrespective of length of service or time of year at which discharge takes place. Air Minister Power announced today at a press conference.

The allowance formerly was $50 for men who had been on six months' service, but if they were discharged between October and April they received an extra $10.

Canadian Legion officials here were jubilant. Saturday when informed of the increase, they said they will pay for all men service on leave, or discharged, directly to their homes.

The Legion has led a campaign for this for many years.

"Natural men are very highly pleased at the decision of the government," Secretary-General W. Williams, Edmonton Legion.

Brace, 26, Saturday.

"We think the government has done what is both fair and just. The matter is now closed as far as the Legion is concerned," he added.

Aussies Driving On Wareo Base

OTTAWA, Dec. 4—(CP)—The Australian forces here are to be paid for maintaining employment after the war.

Various defence officials indicate that their main topic will be proposed revisions in the wartime arrangements for pay, which likely will also speak more broadly on collective bargaining and arbitration of labor disputes and on postwar employment.

The Australian forces are to be paid for maintaining employment after the war.

Some may reveal in broad outline some of the governments plans for maintaining employment after the war.

EXPECT NEW METHOD

The wage stabilization orders under consideration for many weeks by the cabinet are understood to be based on a new method of setting wage rates to the cost of living and perhaps a consolidation of present cost-of-living boards with basic wage rates.

It is the opinion of the government that their lustre is undimmed, and that appreciation of the work they will bring victory is as extensive as ever.

An example of a genuine desire to help the wounded is the $100,000 fund which was given by M. M. Hansen whose headquarters are at the Memorial Hospital here. The fund, which was to assist in contributing to the construction of a new hospital, was paid $12,280 which he turned over to The Not Forgotten.

Men who unflinchingly, unselfishly climbed up over the parapet as the first signs of dawn appeared in the sky, and who are now wounded soldiers wondering if they will be able to join in the general celebration.

The Edmonton Bulletin, each year at this season, opens its columns for the receipt of donations to The Not Forgotten Fund. This year has as its objective, the provision of a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year for the many patients of the Military Wards.

Through The Not Forgotten Fund, the public can help in caring and participating in the enjoyment of the wounded soldiers at Christmas.

Men who unflinchingly, unselfishly climbed up over the parapet as the first signs of dawn appeared in the sky, and who are now wounded soldiers wondering if they will be able to join in the general celebration.

The fight they are putting up now is a battle for life and death, as that in the repulsed Ypres Salient, on the shell-torn heights at Passchendaele or on the dominating crest of Vimy Ridge.

OTTAWA, Dec. 4—(CP)—Air Minister Power announced today that changes in the war picture will require a considerable reshuffling of training schools, formations and units of the air force in Canada, and a reorganization of personnel and functions.

A number of training schools, devoted to flying training, will be re-located, principally those originally opened as R.A.F. "transferred" schools.

Certain elementary training schools, devoted exclusively to the elementary training of pilots under the R.A.F. scheme, will cease operating for those purposes, but other use will be made of them.

Certain serving flying training advanced training of pilots will change the character and nature of the training carried on at these schools.

Mr. Power said there has been "a considerable reduction" in operational manpower wastage rates.

More Schools

Edmonton's population is growing by way of the cradle, as well as because of the steady influx from outside points. In consequence, school attendance is already rising, and is likely to rise faster when the babies of today get old enough to toddle away to school.

The public school board is making plans accordingly, and Superintendent Shepard has returned from a trip to eastern provinces and states in which he studied modern trends in school-building. The results will be known after the construction program is announced.

Edmonton many years ago adopted the principle that only the best in schools was good enough for Edmonton children. That policy has never been abandoned, though makeshifts have been adopted here and there, and what were supposed to be temporary conditions.

So far as the taxpayers are concerned it may be taken as certain that quality will come first and cost second when the new building plans are up for consideration. Economy at the expense of having school children poorly housed has never been popular in this city.

Tell Them We Remember

As usual at this time of year, The Bulletin is inviting contributions to the National War Fund. This year the fund is to provide Christmas cheer for sailor, doctor and airman patients in the University hospital. Patients from the fighting forces of any of the Allied countries are of course included when the gifts are being distributed.

To date, now more than a hundred veterans in the hospital cots. Some of them fought in the First Great War, and are still suffering from injuries then sustained. Men are arriving regularly from the fighting fronts of the present war. The cases number substantially more than at some of the Christmas seasons. Hence the need for the Christmas list to be of generous proportions.

All contributions are acknowledged in the columns of The Bulletin, and are welcome whether large or small. The greater the number of contributions, the greater the significance of this gesture of remembrance to our bed-ridden veterans, and the more they will be cheered by the proof that they are kept in mind by the people of this city and district. The Not Forgotten fund deserves a place on the Christmas list of everyone who can help.

The Subs Have Failed

At Washington Secretary Gruen gave out the good news that new construction has now more than made up all the Allied losses in merchant ships since the beginning of the war. This was due to the saving that the Axis submarine war in both oceans has failed.

Not in the sense that the menace has been removed, that vigilance dare be relaxed, but that the future fate of our sinkings may not be expected. But has not in the sense that its objective has not been reached and is now in no prospect of being gained. That objective was to so paralyze Allied shipping that the Allied blockade could not concentrate their strength in Europe and in the Orient.

The submarine was the first line of defense, both of Hitler and of Tojo. The U-boats were counted on to prevent the sending of supplies. But the number of ships lost in Britain and the Mediterranean, and to isolate the United States until Japan could knock out China and consolidate its grip on eastern Asia and the Pacific islands.

In the end, however, these enemy purposes failed. Now the war is closing in on Hitler's empire from two sides and creeping nearer to Japan—in very large measure because the submarine couldn't hold the Allies at bay.

mortgage companies or the bureaucrats. When that is made apparent through adequate reforms, the true personality of Canada will emerge.

Berlin is the Sample

Recesses coming by way of Sweden say Berlin on Friday morning was a city without gas, water, electricity or newspapers. The last only suggests, it does not pretend to enumerate, the services destroyed or dislocated by the repeated bombings.

Sanitation would of course be impossible, the water supply had been wrecked. Telephone and telegraph lines had been almost completely paralyzed. Transportation systems could not possibly operate in the circumstances outlined. The wrecking of stores and factories, the disruption of food distribution, the demolition of homes, the loss of power, the loss of gas gets the complete demoralization of city life as it is known in Edmonton—these things are left to the imagination. They are matters of course, which the despatch-writers did not think necessary mentioning.

It may be that Germany could not be bombed into capitulation—Britain was only bombed into fury. But it is being shown at Berlin, that a city can be bombed into military collapse and made a liability instead of an asset.

Berlin is now a dead weight. Planes and guns and other equipment have to be moved there from other centers, instead of being moved from Berlin factories to fighting fronts.

And since the people of a city live on its industry and trade, the Reich capital must be an economic as well as a military, the rest of the country. Unable to support themselves, its inhabitants must be fed and clothed and sheltered at the expense of the taxpayers elsewhere.

It is true that the Allied chiefs are drafting all the able-bodied German people, telling them to surrender or see their country bombed into ruin, these may see in the spectacle of their capital city what the choice means.

The Romanians are reported to be planning to evacuate Bucharest, the capital, and Ploesti, the centre of the oil fields. If so, they are either in a state of incipient revolt against Hitler or they are convinced that he cannot stop the Russian advanced Army. Both are real Romanian centres, but not often enough to account for the evacuation of these two key points.

Everywhere Is Reaction Against Curtailment of Freedom

By HAROLD L. WEIR
The return of the Post War Policy Committee of the Advertising and Sales Bureau of the Vancouver Board of Trade may have been masterfully engineered. But the report of London Chamber of Commerce's "General Principles of a Post War Economy" still exists as the basis of social and economic thinking for the merchants and business men of Britain's capital city. It links the two together because it is the result of a careful study of the two reports of the Vancouver report was built.

Harold L. Weir
of the London report, on the London report, Certain fundamental principles are common to each. And each reveals the extent to which the two reports are demonstrating a reaction against social and economic practices that have been adopted.

The London Chamber of Commerce has a direct membership of more than 1,000 business firms and companies. Affiliated with it are 39 industrial and commercial clubs, and a membership of more than $60,000.

A considered opinion from this body, then, is no mere snap judgment of fanatics or professional reformers.

"Something Wrong"

The London report has this to say: "It is widely admitted that there is something radically wrong with our economic system. It is palpably absurd that nations should be fed and clothed and sheltered at the expense of the taxpayers elsewhere.

It is true that the Allied chiefs are drafting all the able-bodied German people, telling them to surrender or see their country bombed into ruin, these may see in the spectacle of their capital city what the choice means.

Both are real Romanian centres, but not often enough to account for the evacuation of these two key points.

The Romanians are reported to be planning to evacuate Bucharest, the capital, and Ploesti, the centre of the oil fields. If so, they are either in a state of incipient revolt against Hitler or they are convinced that he cannot stop the Russian advanced Army.

Both are real Romanian centres, but not often enough to account for the evacuation of these two key points.

The London report has this to say:

"It is widely admitted that there is something radically wrong with our economic system. It is palpably absurd that nations should be fed and clothed and sheltered at the expense of the taxpayers elsewhere.

WITH only two games remaining in the first round for "A" section of the City Men's Basketball League, Latter Day Saints now have a firm grip on third place as a result of their win over Varsity at Westgate on Friday night. In spite of the victory over Bechtel, Price, Callahan the Aircraft Repairers are a half-game behind from the leading Air Transport Command in "B" section.

On Tuesday, the Quarters and Engineers will be the main attraction. This will complete the regular round for Set Tom Link's men and a loss cannot do worse than give them a tie with the Aircraft Repairers. L.L. George Hays and his Quarter-masters will go back again on Thursday, the Hospital furnishing the opposition.

Although they wound up with only a margin of seven points over Varsity, the Aircraft Repairers have a decided edge over Gordon Ferguson's Bears with the final section. Aircraft Repairers rode home with plus points in the Bechtel, Price, Callahan fixture.

81 POINTS FOR SONNTAG

SHILL SONNTAG had a chance to break the league scoring record on Friday night, but he settled for Hon. Solon Wey's club, however, ran up 22 which is exactly the same as the record set by Quarter-masters the previous week.

In his five games this season Sonntag has collected a total of 81 points. He is followed by John Gulekson of Engineers who is next high in the circuit. John has still a game to play in the final section.

John Long, the coach of the Quarter-masters, has 61 to show for his efforts so far and Paul Blawie of the same club has 56 for the season. The other 100-pointers is Earl Ayers with 54 and Harley Miller has 29.

Warren Taubner is high for Hepatitis with 48, while two Affairs and George Ralph has 48 for three. Sam Sheeter heads the list for Varsity with 47. Jim Hays is in Callahan today attending the provincial basketball meeting.

Paying More Money Too

N. H. L. Games Continue To Set Attendance Records

MONTRÉAL, Dec. 4.—(CP)—More people paid more money to watch National Hockey League games so far this season than in any comparable period in the long history of the league.

Official figures tell a story not of bigger crowds but also of crowds buying more high-priced seats than in other years. If the trend continues—and growth officials believe it will—next year's attendance will grow even more.

Aircraft went ahead 6-2 in the first quarter and outscored the losers 16-5 in the second for a 22-7 lead. The aircraft president, who weeks ago, and the only reason he said he had was to "test the loyalty of a member of his organization."

On Nov. 23, the aircraft team had one more official of the N.H.L. to go down as the best in its history.

In the first 21 games this season, paying customers totaled 324,071, up 10,000 over the 1952-53 season.

For the first time in the history of the N.H.L. a team had won all 13 games.

Aircraft's record is 10-1-1, while the other 100-pointers are 9-2-1.

If you like it, on a percentage basis, the aircraft are up 10 percent over last year, and attendance is up 11, which leaves no other conclusion but that general interest in hockey is paying more for their seats.

The reasons for it all are anybody's guess. One is that there is more money in the game, and the fans are willing to pay for relaxation and entertainment.

Another suggestion is that the fans are more interested in the public papers of various kinds this year.

League officials don't care what the reason is, as long as it keeps up.

OS. Dave Nichol, with two OS. Vic Loveladon, OS. Doug Leggs, OS. Gus Schell, OS. Bill Hugill, Miller and one each, were the other Chippewas' scorers.

L-Cpl. Harold Johnson, Pte. James Hays, Pte. Steve Weller and Pte. Jimmy McFadden netted for Army.

The Army opened the scoring with a goal by Pte. Steve Weller in the first period and then until the third period Navy got one goal.

Two goals were scored in the middle frame and eight in the closing stanza.

Thoms Seriously Ill in Hospital

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—(CP)—Bill Hawk, Chicago White Sox baseball team, was reported "favorable" yesterday. Hawk, 45, who was reported ill yesterday, was reported yesterday to be in Bethany Hospital, where he is currently under treatment.

Navy League Sends Gifts to Merchant Navy

Approximately 2,200 large, well-filled ditty bags have been sent by the women's committee of the Northern Alberta Branch of the Navy League of Canada as a special Christmas gift to the heroic men of the Merchant Navy, it was announced Saturday.

The committee, which has sent more than 20,000 knitted garments, 375 long-sleeved, turtle-necked sweaters specially treated to resist water damage, hats, mitts, and clothing for distribution to survivors from ships sunk by enemy action.

There is an urgent need for such garments, especially trousers and sweaters.

Forty-one garments, lined with fur for the winter, have been sent for use by men working in exposed positions aboard ship. These jerseys have been made here out of discarded jerseys, socks, hats, and other clothing articles.

OTHER ARTICLES

In addition 89 seamen's quilts, and two cushions have been sent, one to each family at seaboard, and on mine-sweepers.

Knitted goods are needed in ever-increasing quantities and the help of good knitters is requested. Work may be sent to the special application to the Navy League work room, Department of Thompson and Dunes, Jasper Avenue, and sky between 10 and 12 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Two City Airmen In Casualty List

Sgt. George Rodney Alexander Walkem is reported as missing after air operations against the enemy. His wife lives here.

Sgt. Cuthbert W. Moffat, whose father, W. B. Moffat, lives at 11141 63 street, is listed as "presumed dead." Previously he had been reported "missing on active service."

"Just a second—I know I have change in here some place!"

Auto Hits Flat Car: Driver Is Arrested

Front part of a car operated by Fred L. Walbaum, 17 Hull Block, was completely demolished, but the driver escaped injury when the auto struck a steel flatcar being shunted on a C.N.R. spur track at 105 Avenue and 105 street, Friday evening.

The accident occurred at 8:40 p.m.

According to a report by Traffic Officers J. H. Cookson and R. Hughes, Walbaum was driving west on 103 Avenue. The freight train was being moved slowly.

The automobile struck the flatcar two cars back from the locomotive. Fireman Roy Greg and Engineer Anderson were in the locomotive, in charge of the car.

C.C.F. Maintains Full Democracy In Organization

Through periodic meetings of tens, by constitution and procedure, conventions are held annually, and national conventions which are held every two years, the rank and file membership of the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation maintains complete democratic control over the organization. Elmer E. Roper, provincial president of the C.C.F., stated in addressing a meeting of the Soild Club Friday night at the YMCA.

Of the 311 delegates attending the provincial convention in Edmonton last month, 262 were farmers or farmers' wives. It is these people, a cross-section of the community, who are the people which make the C.C.F. policies and see that they are carried out, he said.

"The national leader, whether he becomes president of Canada or not, must be elected by the annual C.C.F. convention every two years, or cease to remain as leader. The provincial leaders must face the people at annual conventions, whether or not they become the premiers of their provinces," Mr. Roper said.

The C.C.F. carries political democracy from the local community right up to the national convention.

The C.C.F. is the only other political organization in Canada through which the people of the nation may exercise democratic control over the government.

The C.C.F. issues an invitation to all citizens who agree with its program to become members and participate in control of it.

"The program of the C.C.F. is based on the physical fact that the people of Canada have the same standard of living as high as the natural resources and facilities of the country will permit," Mr. Roper said.

NATIONAL WEALTH

In 1932 the net national wealth production in Canada, after allowances for depreciation and amortization, was $27 billion of dollars.

In 1942 the net production was $8 billions, or enough to give every man, woman and child in Canada $3,500. Our ability to give the people of Canada an abundant life is not limited, but more, it is a matter of will," Mr. Roper said.

The difference between 1932 and 1942 was on the national control of the economy for the country to keep Canadians at work to produce the things needed to win the war. A.C.F.F. government would maintain national democratic control to keep Canadians at work producing the things needed to keep the Canadian family a good standard of living.

"If we can make tanks and planes, we can make ships and put them in the ships we build and send them across the sea to North Africa or Italy to maintain our armaments. We can make ships, people of Canada need and put them in freight cars and send them to the ports of the world to maintain the homes of our people," he said.

DEMOCRATIC CONTROL

"This can only be done if national democratic control over the economy of the country takes the place of the anarchy of mis-called private enterprise which gave us the storms and depressions of the thirties and the economic breakdown of the nineteen-thirties."

Social ownership as advanced by the C.C.F. would consist of national, provincial, municipal and co-operative forms of ownership and operation, in the appropriate

There was nothing inconsistent in private, individual ownership of C.C.F. family farms favored by the C.C.F. Social ownership means ownership by the people, and if all the people of Western Canada own the land, then it is owned by the people. A C.C.F. government would assist in the development of co-operative farm organizations. Farmers, too, could enjoy the modern services and conveniences now enjoyed by the middle class," he said.

The men in Canada's armed forces, many of whom were unemployed before the war, will be given the nation can feed and clothe them and provide places for them to live and give them the tools of their trade, and give them peaceful employment after the war.

That is why they gave 41 per cent of their votes to the C.C.F. in the recent election. The 41 per cent for the Conservatives and 23 per cent for the Liberals," he said.

DIVIDED JURISDICTION

Because of the divided jurisdiction between Dominion and provincial governments in Canada the election of provincial governments with a national outlook was essential to effective national planning to deal with national problems. The greatest enemies of Canadian unity are the provincial governments, those who insisted on keeping Dominion and provincial affairs in separate orbits. The Canadian market must be as wide as Canada is wide, and the problems of every part of Canada must become the problems of every part of Canada.

Controller Removes Asphalt Purchase Restrictions

Hon. W. A. Fallow States
Will Prepare Immediately
Next Year's Road Program

Removal as from Dec. 1 of all restrictions on purchase and use of asphalt was announced by the Dominion fuel controller in a letter received Saturday by Hon. W. A. Fallow, minister of national resources.

"You may rest assured that we will take full advantage of this action," said Mr. Fallow. "We have a lot of rock ready for use in roadbuilding. In fact, we have had two or three months to commence preparing our program for next year and the amount of work we do will be limited only by the number of men we can obtain to operate the roadbuilding equipment."

The letter, written by A. L. Morris, secretary to the Dominion fuel controller states: "The Dominion fuel controller states that 'We are pleased to be able to advise you that, as of Dec. 1, all restrictions on the purchase of asphalt in all parts of Canada will be withdrawn, and your department may now purchase asphaltic material as you see fit in accordance with the regulations'."

"Crude oil, for refining, is available in quantities for the coming year of a type which produces a larger percentage of residual fuel than ever before."

"The Doctor's Daughters"

By FAITH BALDWIN

CHAPTER XXIII
GLORIA came back. She reported from the doorway that Doctor Thompson had answered the telephone, and he was at once.

It was a long 15 minutes.

Once he was there, competent, cool things fell rapidly into place. Ambulance and Timmy, arrangements made at the Hospital Communicable Diseases. The health authorities notified. Quarantine for the house. The services of the city health nurse, Mrs. Reman and her approaching confinement constituted a complication, but that, too, would be dealt with, properly.

Emily had driven home with Jim, sent for a car to scrub and change. Ellen, clutching with commotion, served them coffee and sandwiches. Nancy and Millie were out, and Doctor Hall hadn't come in yet.

"In a city of this size," said

What Wilt Thou Have Me Do?

By T. O. Chisholm
Lord, what wilt Thou that I should

What is my task?
This question, leaping from my heart,

I have to ask.
What place of duty can I fill?

Where can I go
To lighter, in Thy name,
Another's woe?

Many hearts are torn today,
So many souls are passing now.
Through waters deep,
So many feet are feds alone.
Without Thy grace;
So many have not found in Thee
A resting place.

Mid streams of shells and roar of guns

With pain and die,
Giant hunger stalks through many lands.

Whom nations cry,
Whole nations groan beneath the lash

Of conqueror's sway,
Were no men so wise

As in this day?

In such a world, with needs so vast,
What can I do?

Fill Thou my heart with love like Thine.

With pity, too,
Here are my hands, my feet, my all,
Lead Thou the way.

With Thee it is all.

Other Resolutions

8-Hour Day, 44-Hour Week
For Government Employees
Again Urged at Convention

Establishment of a maximum eight-hour day and 44-hour week for all employees in government institutions will be urged again upon the provincial government by the Civil Service Association of Alberta, according to terms of a resolution passed Friday afternoon at the association's 23rd annual convention now at the Macdonald Hotel.

The resolution, submitted to the convention by Red Deer branch of the association, was adopted by the nursing and attendant staff at the Provincial Training School, Red Deer, who were working a minimum of 55 hours per week.

During the discussion on institution hours, it was pointed out that employees in the public service at Oliver were now working on an eight-hour basis and results were quite good.

TEXT OF RESOLUTION

Full text of the 44-hour resolution reads as follows: "Whereas the nursing and attendant staff at Red Deer are working a minimum of 55 hours per week, and whereas the branch of the service is to employ those with proper qualities of character and temperament, and with a real sense of vocation so that a high standard of service may be built up, and whereas conditions are not sufficiently attractive to attract the best men, be it resolved that the incoming executive be instructed to continue to urge the government to establish a maximum eight-hour day and 44-hour week for all employees in government institutions."

William McGruther, association president, told the convention that the decision to submit the resolution to the incoming executive was committed to him, but the difficulty was in the task of convincing the association's members that it will be adopted in the near future for all institutions. "I added," he said, "that the incoming executive was a resolution asking that all employees who have worked out contracts for a minimum rate of pay with sick leave benefits be given a raise."
